There are a number of reasons why the world's population is becoming increasingly malnourished. One of the main reasons is the increasing demand for food. The world's population is growing rapidly, and this is putting increasing pressure on the world's food resources. Another reason is the increasing demand for meat and dairy products. This is putting increasing pressure on the world's food resources. A third reason is the increasing demand for processed food. This is putting increasing pressure on the world's food resources.

There are a number of ways in which the world's food resources can be increased. One way is to increase the amount of land that is used for agriculture. Another way is to increase the amount of water that is used for agriculture. A third way is to increase the amount of fertilizer that is used for agriculture. A fourth way is to increase the amount of pesticides that are used for agriculture.

The experience of growing up in a small town and attending a small school cannot be matched. In August of 1988, we were timid young freshmen on our own in a strange place. As we wandered through the maze of red and blue hallways of Berlin High School, we looked around apprehensively. We began to relax as we realized that we recognized the names of our classmates, many of whom we had known since first grade. After that precarious first day, we learned the names of many other important people: new friends, teachers, coaches, upperclassmen, and finally, underclassmen. Berlin High is the place where everyone knows your name, and it has remained such a place for four long years. Now, as we prepare to head in our separate ways, we will remember the names of the good friends and special people whom we have encountered within the walls of Berlin High. Berlin High School will endure in our minds as the place where everyone knows your name.

Some things that we remember the most in high school are some of our driving blunders. Allyson and Sue once jumped out of the back of Stacie's truck during a red light in the middle of an intersection. Another one was when Aimee tried to drive a stick-shift and in the process, hit a parked car.

The friend that I most remember meeting is Jenn. I suppose it's because I thought she was so strange. I met Jenn in 7th grade chorus with Mr. C. We started talking and ended up spending the rest of the period each day pretending to sing "At the Hop" while sitting on the floor in the back of the music room. We used to call Jenn "Dictionary" because she rambled on and on, stating facts that no one else knew — or ever wanted to know! We are still friends and hopefully will be for a long time.

One hot summer day Josie and I ventured down to Old Lyme to visit Christine Asal at her summer house. After a great day hanging out with Christine, we decided to leave. Since the bridge was under construction, Christine told us to take a different exit to get home. Well, we did. Then we started to go by towns and cities we never heard of. I got worried, but Josie kept saying, "don't worry." So I didn't. I fell asleep and awoke to Josie asking where White Plains was. I looked at the Connecticut map and told her there wasn't a White Plains. Then we saw it — the huge sign that said, "Welcome to New York!"

I remember that up until our hair styles were totally changed, around freshman or sophomore year, the same teachers would always mix Melissa Uznanski and me, calling her "Jessica" and me "Melissa." I also remember how funny I thought it was, especially if I got an "A" instead of "C," just for being confused with Lissa. After a while it got annoying, but I would still laugh at it.

Our alliance began when Amy moved to Berlin in the seventh grade. Jen was assigned to show her around and get her acquainted with the school. At first, Jen was reluctant because Amy's individuality and Jen's tendency to follow the crowd weren't qualities that could easily mesh. They became very close that year; however, something was missing. It was Betsy. She joined our lunch table and instantly the three of us became inseparable. Though through the years we have experienced long silences and countless tears, we have always managed to survive.

On the first day of sixth grade I went to sit with Alison during lunch. Alison and I had always been best friends, and I did not wish to share her with anyone else. When I got to the table, Tami Brierley was sitting next to Alison already. I gave her the dirtiest look possible, slammed my lunch tray down, and ignored her for the rest of the lunch. Somehow we got over the first hatred during that year. In fact, Tami is now one of my best friends.

While on a camping trip, we decided to take a walk at night. While walking in the dark, we discussed the possibility of getting abducted or of encountering a car. After spooking ourselves for a while, we saw a car turn onto the deserted road on which we were walking, and we tried to run for brush nearby. We all screamed, took off in different directions, and Laura got stuck in some prickles. After the car went by, we all couldn't stop laughing.

I was born first but because I had dark hair and Kari had blond hair, my parents named her Karina because it is Norwegian. I was nameless for a few weeks — "Twin A." My parents picked Tami as a nickname because they liked it, but they wanted a full name. Then, the driver who was working for them at the time said, "I have the perfect name for you, Tamika." Tamika is a variation of a Japanese name. My middle name, Traut, is my paternal grandmother's maiden name.

I was not named Jennifer for anything special; my name was picked out of a baby book. I was going to be named Andrea but my parents voted against it after combining Andrea with Dorau. Not too many years before I was born, a ship, called the "Andrea Doria," collided with another ship and sank, and my mother did not want me to pay the price of being called a "sunken ship."

To the Class of '92.

We've shared a short time together. We have memories of many times and events, places and people, hard work and good times. To you, I leave two quotes from the musical "The Fantasticks."

*"Recall that secret place:
You've been there, you remember:
That special place where once —
Just once — in your crowded sunlit lifetime,
You hid away in shadows from the tyranny of time."*

*"Try to remember when life was so tender
That no one wept except the willow.
Try to remember when life was so tender
That dreams were kept beside your pillow.
Try to remember when life was so tender
That love was an ember about to billow.
Try to remember, and if you remember,
Then follow."*

Life is so very short. Live each day to the fullest. Hold on to your dreams. Strive for excellence in all that you do. My best wishes go with you.

Class Advisors

If there were ever anyone who knew the names of the Class of 1992, it is our class advisors. Mrs. Linda Kargul, Mrs. June Valentino, and Mr. Robert Kelly have watched our class grow from timid, young freshmen into confident, mature seniors. They have guided us through the good and the bad times, not only as advisors, but as friends.

Each of our advisors has contributed to our class in his or her own special way. We will remember Mrs. Kargul for her efficiency, sense of humor, and friendship. Mrs. Valentino is known for her boundless energy and enthusiasm. A special thank-you goes to Mr. Kelly for becoming our co-advisor senior year, and for the support and hard work he has given us.

The Class of 1992 would like to express our sincere appreciation to all of our class advisors for devoting countless hours and enduring patience to our class. We wish them happiness and the best of luck in the future. Thank you for making our four years at Berlin High School the best that they could possibly be. We couldn't have done it without you!

My first introduction to the Class of 1992 was in 1988. As freshmen they all looked so innocent and confused, but when it came to working for Spirit Week, I saw another side of them. They were creative and energetic. They even won the prize that year for their display work.

Sophomore and Junior years — they still projected spirit and initiative. At the Berlin Fair Booth, they had more experiences of hard work and handling mishaps, such as a broken soda machine, a grease fire, and very hot to very cold weather. But, they volunteered without complaining and did the job.

But, what I remember most is the prom. My young innocent students showed me that now they were young adults. Each one of them looked and acted so mature and grown up that I was proud that I had the opportunity to grow with them over the years.

I wish all of the class of 1992 — a productive life and I want to thank them for the memories, and please stay in touch.

Love,
Mrs. Valentino

Mrs. Linda Kargul

As I think about these past four years with the class of 1992, I feel many mixed emotions. I have fond memories of the many projects we worked on, from hall decorations to rebuilding our Berlin Fair booth. With happiness, I remember the significant events in your lives like class rings and the junior prom. I think about your senior year with feelings of joy and sadness. It has given me great pleasure to watch all of you grow and mature, and great joy to share in your accomplishments. My sadness comes in having to say good-bye. As you go off to fulfill your dreams in life, I ask you to remember that your future doesn't just happen, the future is what you make it. I leave you with a quote from a poem by Nancy Simms, "Don't ever forget how to laugh, or be too proud to cry. It is by doing both that we live life to the fullest."

Keep in touch —
Mrs. Kargul (Krugal)

1973-1990

Jimmy McDermott joined our class in 1978 when he enrolled in kindergarten at the Percival Elementary School. He quickly made several friends in Berlin, especially with the children in his neighborhood. Jimmy soon developed an interest in the trumpet, and in third grade he joined the school band. He became a member of the Griswald School Cub Scout Pack and displayed his concern for others through his many church and scout activities.

When Jimmy was in fifth grade, he acted in two plays: as Tiny Tim in Dickens's A Christmas Carol, and as a boatswain in H.M.S. Pinafore. Jimmy's talent in music and the arts flourished as he entered McGee Middle School. There, he played first trumpet in the Spartan Band and in the elite Stage Band. Jimmy's dedication and hard work paid off when he was awarded the prestigious honor of Eagle Scout as a member of Boy Scout Troop 44.

During the summer of 1988, Jimmy expanded his musical horizons when, using money he earned from odd jobs, he bought his first guitar. All of his neighbors could hear the "beginner's" guitar pieces of which he was so proud. Jimmy entered Berlin High School in 1988, and he helped to organize a band that he dubbed with the name "Wild Child." Keeping very busy with school, a part-time job, chorus, and his band, Jimmy also found time to appear as Guiliam in the BHS Drama Club's production of Camelot. In addition, the intense hours of band practice proved worthwhile when "Wild Child" became a smash hit at the Talent Night Show in 1990. "Wild Child" became increasingly popular, and Jimmy and the band played at many different community and social events.

Jimmy McDermott was a truly unique and special member of our class. His talent and sense of humor touched everyone in an extraordinary way. The sound of Jimmy's music will ring on in our hearts, and we will never forget him. This is why we, the Class of 1992, dedicate our yearbook in memory of our friend, James W. McDermott, Jr.

Exchange Students Reflect on BHS Experience

Martin Petersen

This year, Berlin High School welcomed a new student from Split, Croatia. Ivana Matjasic says that she was "happy and excited" on her first day of school. "I didn't know anybody, but I was sure I would make wonderful friends, as I did."

Ivana finds Berlin High as an institution different from her school at home. She enjoys being able to select her own courses, and she also likes the variety of extracurricular activities offered at BHS. Although the United States differs greatly from Croatia, Ivana feels that "teenagers all over the world are the same." She finds that life in the U.S. is much more rushed than in her country. She believes, however, that there are many more opportunities for success in the United States.

When asked what she will remember most about Berlin High and the United States, Ivana says "the people. The people are definitely great." In the future, she hopes to attend business school in Italy and devote her time to acting, which she describes as her "big passion." Eventually, Ivana hopes to return to Croatia. Berlin High and the Class of 1992 wishes Ivana the best of luck in all of her endeavors.

Martin Petersen became a member of the Class of 1992 this year. Martin is a native of Greve, Denmark, which he describes as being south of Copenhagen. As a new student at Berlin High, Martin admits that he was "a little lonely ... but only for a short while." He adds that since he had trouble finding his way around, he "quickly learned the location of 209."

Martin finds that the greatest differences between the United States and Denmark lie in the traditions, such as Halloween and Valentine's Day. "People," he says, "are much the same in Denmark as in the United States." Martin's school is unlike Berlin High in the sense that he has more freedom and he may come and go as he pleases (no passes!). He also feels that he receives much more homework at home than he does at BHS.

When he leaves Berlin to return home, Martin will take with him many special memories. Among them, he will remember Mrs. Kargul and her family; traveling to Disney World and Boston; and appearing in "Aida." Martin still has two more years of high school to complete in Denmark, and after that he would like to continue his education in civil engineering. Good luck Martin!

Out of the Wild

Class of 95

So here we are, the inexperienced, confused, amazed, scared, courageous, crazy, light-hearted, smiling, carefree, peaceful and pleased flock of freshmen in this strange, new world.

Being at last civilized and made into human beings, we're finally getting the hang of it. Still from another dimension, we're exploring the new territory very carefully and keeping our distance.

But after the first two orientation months, we're no longer the little trembling "fresh kids." We dig everything — we know the school, the upperclassmen, and the faculty members. We break a rule or two, drive a teacher crazy, but we don't let anybody beat us up or push us around.

Eventually, we have come to the end of the school year — tired but satisfied.

Hey! And we're no longer freshmen! Chill out! Nobody's going to look down upon us and point to us — the newcomers who know nothing. We have crossed the frontier and the summer awaits us.

Katie Turgeon hits those high notes with a flair.

"What's a spinthariscopes?"

"Did you read the student handbook yet?"

"If you get hungry you could always eat your sweatshirt."

A big smile from Rachel Warjenski and Bridget Mosher.

Anxious and terrified expressions are visible on the faces of the freshmen football team, as they are introduced at the rally.

Sophomore Year: Halfway There!

Class of 94

As we walked into the building, on the first day of school, a sense of pride was felt by all the sophomores, and a grin was implanted on each face. We walked down the hallways which had looked huge last year at this time. Then we saw the scared and intimidated looks on the faces of the freshmen. It was weird to think that in just one year we had changed. By the end of the year, high school would be halfway over, and we were starting to think of what actually was beyond the doors of Berlin High School.

All of us began to prepare for the future by studying, joining clubs, getting jobs, or taking P.S.A.T.'s. After all, sophomores need to get involved in their future.

We all looked up to our new class advisors, Mrs. Frost and Mrs. DeJohn and the new group of officers leading the class. Joe Kennedy was president, Gretchen Zielinski, vice president, Eric Schmidt, treasurer, and Michelle Pandolfi, secretary.

Sophomore year, full of excitement, marked the halfway point in school. We made it through two years and will finish the next two years with the same amount of success.

Junior Year One Step Closer

Class of 1993 officers: Leo Civitillo, President; Andrea Russak, Vice President; Laureen Dabrowski, Secretary; and Colleen Grogan, Treasurer

As juniors we begin to realize that our high school years are quickly slipping away. It is difficult to believe that we are three quarters of the way through with high school. The thought of graduating and moving on in only one short year brings not only hope but fear and uncertainty. With more pressure to excel, more responsibilities, and a more time consuming workload one cannot help but begin to consider the future more and more.

As we entered school this past year it was satisfying to be able to take pride in being considered upperclassmen. Throughout the year we have continued to build a number of memories for ourselves and others. Friendships have grown stronger and our class has really started to come together as one. We've shared with each other some good times and some bad.

Junior year at Berlin High is highlighted by a number of activities and occurrences. The long awaited Class of 1993 rings finally arrived in October to the delight of all who chose to purchase one. Not so long after the arrival of our class rings most juniors were awakened to the frustration of taking our first standardized tests, when the PSAT's were administered. This was only a preview of the more significant SAT's which many took this spring. In March we enjoyed our Junior Prom at the Sheraton in Waterbury. The night proved to be a truly spectacular occasion which many will not forget.

Overall our junior year has been a noteworthy and unforgettable one. Our presence has been felt more on the athletic fields, in the classroom, and out of school. We strive to continue our impact and successes in and out of Berlin High School as we move "one step closer."

BHS Shows Its Spirit

Spirit Week '91

There is a common feeling among the students at Berlin High School that school doesn't really begin until Spirit Week. This year, students celebrated the opening of the fall sports season with excitement and pride. Monday, September 16, 1991 was Hat Day, and students sported their best sombreros and Micky Mouse ears. Tuesday, Hippie Day, was truly the grooviest day of the week. Love beads and bell bottoms could be seen among the normal jeans and sweatshirts. On Wednesday, grass skirts and bright flowered shirts were worn in the true spirit of Hawaiian Day, and students donned their favorite tee-shirts on Thursday for Tee-shirt Day. Uniforms were everywhere on Friday as athletes, Cheerleaders, Drill team and Colour Guard members showed their team enthusiasm. Other BHS supporters wore red and blue for the pep rally, which was held Friday afternoon. Overall, Spirit Week was a great success and was one of the highlights of the school year.

Getting Psyched for the New Year

Pep Rally and the Spirit Dance

This year, minor changes were made to tone down what in the past had been a "Too rowdy" pep rally. This year, students were allowed to sit where they wanted, and instead of decorating the halls, the different classes cooperated to decorate the gym. BHS hopes to instill a theme of unity among its students, and the new pep rally format which was demonstrated on Friday, September 13, 1991 was a step in this direction.

Nevertheless, the new changes did not throw a total damper over the rally. Students enthusiastically cheered their classmates as they took to the floor for their respective teams. Coaches from the football, volleyball, soccer, and cross country teams introduced and showed off their "psyched" teams. The band played several selections for the crowd, and the Drill Team, Colour Guard, and Cheerleaders combined to perform an impressive dance routine.

The best was yet to come, though, at the annual Spirit Dance. The competitions that had been eliminated from the pep rally were held at the dance. The pie eating contest, the three-legged race, and the limbo were popular with the crowd. Overall, the Sophomores were the victors with the Seniors coming in at a close second. Students dressed in red and blue, and the most popular dance of the evening was the "Electric Slide." The dance was a success, and the Redcoat football team trounced the Morgan Huskies the next day with a score of 42-7.

"Wonderful" Day and Night

On the afternoon of November 9, 1991, a crowd of loyal Berlin fans lined the bleachers at Scalise Field for the annual Homecoming game and festivities. Although the day was cold and windy, spirits ran high as the Redcoats claimed a 40-0 victory over the Plainville (Blue) Devils.

After the Redcoat Marching Band, Drill Team, and Colour Guard performed a spectacular half-time show, the Homecoming Queen and her court were driven onto the field. Freshman Attendant Christa Veles and Sophomore Attendant Maureen McDermott were first presented to the crowd. Next, flowers were given to Junior Attendant Sarah Szczepanic and Senior Attendant ant Jill Spendolini. Finally, the 1991 Homecoming Queen, Becca Dinda, was crowned by former queen and BHS graduate Doreen Pethigal.

The Homecoming activities continued later that evening as the Homecoming Dance took place in the school's gymnasium. Eighty-two couples attended the semi-formal dance, and once again the Queen and her court arrived to reign over the event. The gym was beautifully disguised with steamers, balloons, and flowers, and the dance truly lived up to its theme, "Wonderful Tonight." Sponsored by the Student Council, the successful dance was the perfect ending to a memorable day.

Planning for the Future

Subject Oriented Clubs Provide A Focus

An important part of high school is discovering what one wants to do when one graduates. Berlin High School offers several clubs that cater to students' academic interests and help them to prepare for life after BHS.

The Future Teachers of America is a club that is organized for students who are planning a career in the teaching profession. Each spring, the club members spend a day in the school of their choice, observing and assisting teachers. The Future Teachers of America is advised by Mrs. Colaiacovo.

The Math Team is a group of students who demonstrate their talent in mathematics by competing against other high school students in math meets. Berlin High School is one of twelve schools that participates in the Middlesex Country Math League. Advised by Mr. DiCicco and Mrs. Bates, the Math Team meets regularly to practice for upcoming competitions.

The Science Club involves a group of students who are interested in the field of science and enjoy learning about nature. The club works to promote science at Berlin High School and within the community. One of the high points of the school year is the annual canoe trip weekend, which is chaperoned by co-advisors Mr. Delguidice and Mr. McNulty. Participation in the Science Club is a valuable learning experience for its members as well as a healthy dose of fun.

Berlin High School offers the Business Club for students who are interested in the field of business. The club teaches business skills that will be beneficial to its members in the future. One of the main activities of the Business Club is running the School Store, where students can purchase different items throughout the day. Members of the club also visit various companies and business colleges. Advised by Mrs. Valentino and Mrs. Trider, the Business Club provides excellent experience for these heading into the world of business.

Lending a Hand

Berlin High School's Service Clubs

Berlin High School has several clubs for students who are interested in reaching out and helping others. These groups not only provide service for Berlin High School, but for other schools and the community itself.

The Service league, advised by Mrs. D'Angona, is the sponsor of such traditional activities as the Holiday Dance and St. Paddy's Day Tea. The club is dedicated to helping the community and members are always around to lend a hand. The Service League also holds the annual Card Party Fashion Show and supplies hostesses for Parent Teacher Conferences.

The Ophelia Club also works diligently to help the surrounding community. Several events, such as the School Sweetheart Contest and Food Drive, are held each year to benefit various charities. Advised by Mr. Orstein, the Ophelia Club also sponsors a needy child in India and holds the annual blood drive in March. Being a part of Ophelia helps its members to believe that somehow they are making a difference.

The UpBeat Program is one of the most popular organizations at Berlin High School. Members of UpBeat are known as peer leaders, and their goal is to help peers with social problems concerning peer pressure. UpBeat members also attend intensive training weekends to prepare for their roles as peer leaders. Under the supervision of Ms. Mitchell, the peer leaders work to encourage students to remain drug and alcohol-free and to enjoy life from a substance-free point of view.

As representatives of the student body, Student Council members contribute much to Berlin High School. Student Council sponsors the Homecoming Dance, and this year's activities were a great success. Advised by Dr. Silva and led by President Becca Dinda, the Student Council promotes understanding between the faculty and the body.

National Honor Society Inducts New Members

The Berlin High School chapter of the National Honor Society held its annual induction of new members on January 10, 1992. The ceremony began as Honor Society President Alison Baikal welcomed the twenty-nine senior members, the new inductees, and their guests. Following the presentation of the honor roll awards, the Madrigals performed a musical selection. The twenty-four candidates were presented to principal Thomas Galvin, and after the administering of the Honor Society Oath, the inductees signed the National Honor Society registry.

Congratulatory remarks were then offered to the new members by Superintendent Theodore Rokicki. Emmanuel Forde, Manager of Corporate News Services for Northeast Utilities, also addressed the assembly. A reception hosted by the Service League was held in the Media Center upon completion of the ceremony.

The Honor Society

is advised by Thomas Warburton, and participates in activities such as the annual school census and the tutoring of Berlin High students. Other officers include: Vice President, Joy Cooper; Treasurer, Beth Reibling; and Secretary, Paula Kaczor.

Keeping Informed

5 BHS Organizations Encourage Communication

The field of communications is very popular among Berlin High School students. Whether it is through the written word or the spoken word, students enjoy keeping in touch by becoming involved in a number of school clubs.

The Berlin By-Line is the school's monthly newspaper. As well as covering events that concern BHS, the By-Line also serves as a forum for editorials, drawings, and humor. Working on the By-Line is an excellent opportunity for students to gain experience in writing, drawing, and putting together a newspaper. The By-Line is advised by Mrs. Wolf, and the Editor in Chief this year is Alison Baikal.

Students also keep informed by the daily morning announcements and the data display board. The Morning Announcers are members of the Service League who volunteer to speak to the faculty and students every morning. Coordinated and trained by Amy Olson and Advisor Sandra D'Angona, these girls do the school a tremendous service and help to brighten everyone's morning.

The Date Display Club is the group behind the cafeteria's data display board advised by Mrs. Coliacovo, the club programs the board and makes sure that the information is up to date.

Many students who have a flair for the creative decide to become a part of the Literary Magazine or W.E.R.B. Berlin High School's Literary Magazine, "Signature", is a showcase for young writers who wish to express themselves through poetry, short stories, and drawings. W.E.R.B. is BHS's very own radio station, advised by Gerry Havel. Members of W.E.R.B. are given opportunities to be D.J.'s and to gain experience in the field of broadcasting.

Each one of these clubs provides a great service for Berlin High School by helping to keep students informed. Not only is being a part of a communications group a great experience and challenge, it is also a lot of fun!

Something for Everyone

Clubs that make Berlin High School Unique

Students at Berlin High School have a wide variety of interests with unique clubs such as International Club, Berlin H.O.P.E., Amnesty International, and Youth and Government.

International Club is made up of students who enjoy learning about different cultures. Supervised by Mrs. D'Angona & Mrs. Bryers, the International Club plans several cultural activities during the school year. Members traveled to the Wadsworth Atheneum in December to view the Festival of Trees, and they raised funds for a possible trip to New York in the spring.

Berlin High School's youngest club is Berlin H.O.P.E., or Berlin High Organized to Protect the Earth. The club was started last spring by Christine Asal with the goal of cleaning up the environment. Members have set up recycle boxes in several classrooms, and the club plans to work to clean up the grounds around BHS. Under the advisorship of Dr. Myers, Berlin H.O.P.E. gives concerned students an opportunity to do their part in helping to save the environment.

Amnesty International is an organization that works to help people whose rights have been infringed upon. Throughout the world, people are imprisoned merely because of their beliefs and opinions. Members of Amnesty write letters to heads of government in order to free these prisoners. Advised by Mrs. Daniels, Amnesty International works to raise awareness of the rights of people to be equal and free.

Youth and Government, or Y.A.G., is also one of the newer clubs at Berlin High School. Coordinated by Dr. Marcus, Y.A.G. is a cooperative venture with the Berlin/Kensington YMCA. Students develop and write bills while learning about the democratic process. In March Y.A.G. members attended a three day mock legislative session at the State Capitol in Hartford. Participating in Youth and Government is an excellent opportunity for members to interact with students from around the state and enjoy a valuable learning experience.

The BHS Chorus Makes Music

The 1991-92 Berlin High School Chorus and Madrigals

The Berlin High School Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Robert Kelly, has continued to provide students with an excellent opportunity to pursue singing as a form of music. The 1991-92 year sees the chorus with the all time highest number of participants. The current officers are: President, Dawn Sobczak; Vice President, Laura Kern; Treasurer, Tami Brierley; and Secretary, Amy Olson.

The Chorus is asked to perform at many special functions, as well as the Holiday Concert and the Spring pops concert. This year, the Chorus will try to continue its first place winning style at a festival with other competing schools.

Due to the increased interest of the students in singing, Mr. Kelly began a special group for this year. The Madrigals will perform mostly accapella pieces from the days of the historical Renaissance. This group will compete separately from Chorus. The anticipated success of both groups are an indication of the dedication of Mr. Kelly.

Dramatic Productions Continue at B.H.S.

Each year, the drama club dedicates itself to putting on a musical. Directed by Mr. Robert Kelly since 1983, the shows have become an integral part of many students lives.

Three and a half months are spent each year preparing for three nerve-wracking performances. Anyone who has ever participated in a drama club production fondly remembers the rehearsals, the laughter, Ma Kelly, new friends, and the roar of applause.

Many of the seniors will treasure their experiences in the popular and exciting shows. As freshmen our show was Anything Goes. In our sophomore year, as members of Camelot, we all remember the famous line "Run Boy". As juniors we had the opportunity to be in the spotlight in Mame and in March of 1992, The Sound of Music was produced.

The Seniors who have had feature roles over the years include: John Simeone, Dawn Sobczak, Jessica Ripper, Tami Brierley, Steve Jeske, Amy Olson, Jason Miller, Carin Mailhot, Barbara Tubbs, Kari Brierley, Jill Rackliffe, Jill Spendolini, Mike Curtis, and Jimmy McDermott.

The Drama Club thanks Mr. Kelly for all of his hard work over the years. And to all the seniors, in the famous words of Auntie Mame, — "Open a new window every day!"

Flappers Sara Martinchek, Jen Dorau, and Tami Brierley enjoy the social life at Mame's apartment.

Agnes Gooch, played by Dawn Sobczak, is a shy nanny who Mame takes under her wing and encourages to "open a new window."

1991-92 Berlin Redcoat Marching Band

The power and class of Berlin can be seen in the Berlin High School Redcoat Marching Band. Under the direction of Mr. Ronald Campanario and the new assistant director Mr. Kevin Brigandi, the band is reaching new heights.

The band starts the year by preparing for half time shows during an intense three day practice a week before the start of school. Once school starts, these practices are condensed into a hour and a half every Wednesday night throughout the football season. One can see the finished product at every football game, as the band is led onto the field by Drum Majors Bridget Hayward and Melissa Uznanski.

Once the football season is over, the band continues its work by preparing a Holiday concert and a Pops concert for the spring. The end of the year is topped off by the annual Memorial Day parade.

Within the past four years, the seniors have the great memories of two trips to Orlando, Florida. While there, they had the opportunity to perform in both a day and night time parade in front on thousands of people in the Magic Kingdom of Walt Disney World. The seniors will remember the spirit, fun and outstanding performances for many years to come.

BHS Cheerleaders Have the Spirit

The 1991-92 Berlin High School Cheerleaders

Cheerleaders are an integral part of Berlin High School. Cheerleading is a demanding activity, and this year the squad is in top form. Their hours of intense practice and patience have shown through at every performance.

Led by tri-captains Kristine Tolemea, Lori LaRosa, and Alicia Nappi, the BHS Cheerleaders have had an exciting year. They began the fall season with the annual pep rally and sponsored the successful Spirit Dance. Advised by Mr. Rex Smith and coached by Licia Capodice, the Cheerleaders also planned to attend clinics and competitions. The Berlin High School Cheerleaders have added spirit and enthusiasm to the school and the student body.

Holly Thompson, Kristine Tolemea, and Alicia Nappi concentrate on their pep rally performance.

Colour Guard Spins for Success

1991-92 Colour Guard

The Berlin High School Colour Guard is one of the schools three talented performing groups. As part of the Redcoat Marching Band, the Colour Guard provides the color for the Band's fantastic half-time show. In March of 1991, the Colour Guard traveled with the Band and Drill Team to Orlando, Florida to perform at Walt Disney World. The trip was a great experience, because the Colour Guard was able to perform before thousands of people.

The squad also performs by itself at a variety of events. In the fall, Colour Guard travels to Sage Park and Willow Brook Park to support the boy's soccer team. During the winter months, the group performs at Berlin High School basketball games as well as games at Central Connecticut State University.

The 1991-92 Colour Guard is led by Senior tri-captains Dawn Symonaitis, Jessica Ayers, and Monica Carlson. The squad is made up of nineteen seniors, juniors, and sophomores who represent Berlin High School with pride. The Colour Guard is grateful for the time and effort that their advisor, Mr. Rex Smith, and their coordinating director Evalisa Pulcini have given them. All the members agree that being on Colour Guard is a positive experience and a lot of fun.

Colour Guard: Rhonda Campanario, Jen Dorau, Monica Carlson (captain), Dawn Symonaitis (captain), Jessica Ayers (captain), Andrea Russak, Tanya Ferraro, Sara Liebler, Lynne Orlowsky, Pam Lahoud, Amy Fairchild, Paula Kaczor (secretary), Lauren Dabrowski, Shelly Ravizza, Heather Fontaine, Lauria Salerno (treasurer), Sara McLaughlin, and Colleen Grogan.

The 1991-92 Drill Team

The Berlin High School Drill Team is very active throughout the school year. Advised by Mr. Rex Smith and coordinated by Evalisa Pulcini, the Drill Team is known throughout BHS for their fantastic kickline and dance ability. This year's squad is led by Senior co-captains Janelle Contino and Sharon Staves, and is 16 members strong.

The Drill Team begins their season with the annual Pep Rally, where they perform a challenging routine and help to raise the spirit of the crowd. The squad performs as a part of the Redcoat Marching Band during the football season, and they also support the boy's soccer team. During basketball season, the Drill Team performs at Berlin High School and Central Connecticut University games. In March of 1991, the group flew to Florida, where they marched in Walt Disney World. The hard work and dedication of the Drill Team is evident whenever they perform, and this year's season will be fondly remembered.

A Time for Champions

1991 Football

The 1991 Football team was quite remarkable. The team was undefeated until it met Darien in the Class M State Championship. The regular season presented no challenge to the Redcoats. They played through it without a defeat. When all was over with, the team had a record of eleven wins and became the second place Class M team in the state of Connecticut.

In the process, many Berlin records were broken. The 1991 team won more games and scored more points than any other team in the history of Berlin High School. Four individual records were shattered also. Nick Miano had more quarterback sacks than anyone before him. Adam Salina racked up a record number of two point conversions. Jim Machowski holds the new record for the most points scored in one game. Jason Albert holds the new record for the most PAT passes in one season. Among other personal achievements, Josh Clifford was named to the First Team All-State Football team by all deciding committees.

The 1991 season will surely not be forgotten very quickly. Part of the team's success must be attributed to the team's large group of seniors. Twenty seniors led the Redcoats on and off the field to a season of which all in Berlin can be proud.

A Time For Change

1991 Boys' Soccer

Things were not looking good for Boys' Soccer in August of 1991. The team had lost eleven players from the 1990 team. The Northwest conference made changes that caused it to become more competitive. Weak teams, such as Wilcox Tech, were replaced on the schedule by stronger teams, such as Coginchaug. The team was predicted to finish last.

Despite these negative circumstances, the team did very well, playing to a respectable four wins, eight losses, and three ties. Leadership and determination from senior co-captains Paul Muirhead and Jeff Schmidt paid off.

The effort the team gave in games and during practices was given back to them in awards. Leo Civitello, Mike Francolangia, and Paul Muirhead were selected to be part of the Northwest Conference All-Conference Team. David Zuffalado was dubbed the most improved player on the team. Paul Muirhead was named the team's most valuable player by Head Coach Rob Morrell.

Overall, the team did even better than what was expected of them. With a large junior class ready to lead the team in 1992, the soccer team's future looks bright.

Going for The Goal

1991 Girls' Soccer

Soccer was once said to be a sport of speed, skill, drama, and danger. Just ask the girls' soccer team! Their experiences this year combined all of those elements. Behind the leadership of senior Jen Piskorski and junior Shelly Ravizza, the girls finished the season 4th in the Northwest Conference League. In a competitive match against Ledyard, the girls lost 3-0 in the State Tournament. Backed by a strong defense and an energetic offense, Berlin proved to their opponents that their skill and sportsmanship made them a team worthy of respect. With returning players Shelly Ravizza, Julie Reznicek, Heather Kraft, Lisa Masserio, Sue Church, Lynne Orlowsky, and Tracy O'Brian, Berlin promises to be a strong contender for the Northwest Conference title in 1992.

Determination

1991 Boys' Cross Country

The determination, dedication, and drive needed to be a competitive cross country runner are hard to relate to someone second-hand. Long hours of hard work are just the first step toward a successful runner.

When the season was half over, the team had a noteworthy six wins and only one loss. Due to injuries and other circumstances outside of the team's control, the team finished the season with a record of eight wins and eight losses.

Head Coach Jim Keefe helped to lead the team with senior co-captains Chris Barnat and Tim Osborne. The senior members of the team were Chris Barnat, Gary Gajewski, Tim Osborne, Darren Paladino, and Paul Tskapolis.

The very young team will miss the leadership of the graduating seniors in the 1992 season. However, the returning members of the boys' cross country team promise the next several seasons will be successful.

The Berlin Girls' Cross Country team finished off their season with 6 wins and 5 losses. The year's team consisted of seven girls, all of whom contributed their individual effort to make the 1991 Cross Country team, a winning team. The Northwest Conference championship was hosted in Berlin High's Sage Park. Allyson Forsyth placed first in the meet while her teammate Amy Fairchild placed 9th. The Girls' Cross Country team graduated no seniors; therefore, the seven girls will return in the '92 season. This time they will have an additional year of experience.

1991 Girls' Volleyball

Volleyball is a sport that consists of many ingredients including enthusiasm and sportsmanship. Behind the skill and experience of Jen Carosielli, Joy Cooper, Jill Rackliffe, Beth Riebling, Dawn Symonaitis, and Leah Veleas, the team blended to make an 18-3 season. After winning the Northwest Conference Championship, the girls advanced to the quarter finals in the State Tournament. Unfortunately, they lost to Darien in a great match for the semi-finals. Overall, the girls had an exceptional season beating such teams as Southington, Mercy and Middletown. Jen Carosielli, Beth Riebling, and Leah Veleas were selected to the Northwest conference team while Dawn Symonaitis, Joy Cooper and Jill Rackliffe received recognition for their effort and fine playing. Although these six girls will all be graduating, the volleyball team will be left in the hands of upcoming seniors Katie Baccaro, Sara Szczepanik, Christina Jakubiec, and Kathleen Fitzsimmons.

The Ultimate Duel

1991-1992 Boys' Wrestling

The Berlin High School tradition of excellence in wrestling continues in the 1991-1992 wrestling season. The team has won the Northwest Conference Championship for the last three years and has won the Class M State championship two of the last three years. The team's consistent success is partly a result of the excellent coaching staff.

Coaches Day, Hackney, and Wilamety have helped to turn what would be a good team into a great one. The influence has been inspirational.

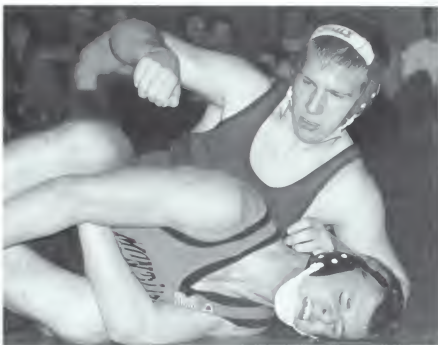

Although the turnout for this year's team was smaller than it has been in past years, the Berlin wrestlers have been very successful. As of February

6, 1992, the team has a record of 14 wins and 4 losses. With the leadership of this year's outstanding captains, the seasons will continue to be successful. The four captains of the 1991-1992 season are as follows: Chris Muli, wrestling in the 160 lbs. weight class; Brian Salisbury, wrestling at 152 lbs.;

Mark Weston wrestling at 119 lbs.; and Josh Clifford, who wrestles in the heavyweight class.

The team's three other seniors provide additional leadership, that is important to the team's success. The individuals are Fred Alkas, Mike Borkowski and Alan Morton.

Chris Muli shows what he's made of.

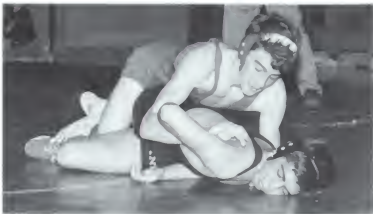

Coach Jim Day reports the match results.

1991-1992 Boys' Basketball

The 1991-1992 Berlin High School Boys' Basketball Team has played very respectably. As of February 6, the team has a record of six wins and seven losses. However, this record does not reflect the amount of talent that is truly contained within this young team.

Although the team is composed wholly of juniors, this tight-knit squad has made large improvements over last year's team. Because there are no seniors, the team does not have permanent captains. Instead the position is used as an incentive for the players. The players who give the strongest defensive effort in a game, are rewarded with the privilege of being the captains for the next game.

An outstanding occurrence happened in the last seconds of the Berlin game at Lyman Hall. Dave Stefanowitz hit a shot from half-court with one second left to win the game for Berlin. The incident was even reported on the Madison Square Garden Sports Network.

In another noteworthy game, Berlin rebounded 49 times against Stonington in Stonington. This kind of effort shows the potential of the 1991-1992 Redcoats Boys' Basketball Team. The future is bright.

1991-92 Girls' Basketball

The Girls' 1991-92 Basketball Team has a schedule that most would say is very hard. The Lady Redcoats have been matched up with the number one ranked team in the state, Southington, in a tournament they played during Christmas vacation. Besides Southington, Berlin has also played New Fairfield, and Northwest Catholic who are also ranked in the Hartford Courant's Top Ten.

Behind the coaching of George Hall and Sal Ferillo the girls are led by senior captains Dawn Symonaitis and Joy Copper. The main spark of the hoop team is ignited by junior Shelly Ravizza who averages 21 points per game. Shelly was named the Courant's athlete of the week along with her teammate Joy Cooper who was featured in the Courant's "spotlight article." The bulk of the team is made up of Lynne Orlowsky, Marcia Baranowski, Laureen Dabrowski, Andrea Russak, and Lisa Masserio.

Beside the fact that the girls have an extremely competitive schedule, their conference games have been ones of mental and physical intensity.

Joy takes a step in from the 3 point line and sets herself up for a shot.

1991-92 Girls' Gymnastics

This year's Gymnastics Team, led by junior captain Sue Church, is coached by Kristin Moon. Despite being an extremely young team and performing in a very competitive schedule, the team was able to obtain some victories. Captain Sue Church, who holds 4 out of 5 school records, is looking to qualify for the State-Open Individual Meet again. Strong all-around performances are also displayed by freshman Tracy Contino, and sophomores Allyson Forsythe and Sandy Frederick. Coach Moon is pleased with the development and progress of the program thus far. Her personal enthusiasm and experience as a gymnast will contribute to the young team's future success.

Tracy Contino concentrates on her form in competition.

1991 Golf

The 1991 Boys' Golf Team was quite successful. Playing through a challenging schedule, the team finished second in the Northwest Conference with 12 wins and two losses. Overall, the team had 27 wins and 5 losses. In the Division II State Championship Tournament, Berlin took fourth place. The team did not have much experience at the beginning of the season, but the team became a solid unit toward the end of the season.

Kyle Gallo, from the class of '93, was selected as an All-State and All-Conference golfer. He also received the Coach's Award. Also, Mark Chant and John Lineen received the Redcoat Award and the Captains Award, respectively.

Head Coach Don Bates finished the 1991 season with 597 career wins. In the coming 1992 season, Bates is looking to win his 600th victory with the BHS team, an incredible feat.

In the four years that preceded 1991, the Berlin Golf Team won four state championships. In 1992, the large senior crew made up of Eric Seaburg, Gary MacDonald, Kevin Motyka, Don Demaine, Mark Chant, Scott Spendolini, and Jason Miller will try to regain the State Championship they once held.

We Asked the Athletes

I always had problems serving, and one game I got up to the line, and freaked out because usually coach would take me out so someone "good" could serve, and in turn I served eleven points.

JILL RACKLIFFE

I can remember a game against South Catholic my sophomore year. I kicked an oncoming ball as hard as possible and watched it soar through the air. I figured the ball would fly right over the goal net, but, instead, it went right in. It was the first goal I ever scored and it gave me an exhilarating feeling I will never forget.

JENNIFER PISKORSKI
SOCCER CAPTAIN

I can remember when Mr. Havel asked Lynne Orlowsky and me to play first in the doubles match against St. Paul's in tournament play. I was totally shocked at the idea that Mr. Havel chose us first, but to Lynne and my amazement, we won the match.

BRIDGET HAYWARD
SENIOR, TENNIS

This season we played Southington, who was the number 1 ranked team in the state, in a Christmas tournament. From the start of the game, I was denied the ball, as well as double and triple teamed. I still managed to score 11 points in the first half including a shot from $\frac{3}{4}$ court at the buzzer. Unfortunately, I got injured early in the second half and did not play the rest of the game.

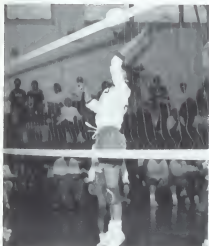

JOY COOPER
CAPTAIN, BASKETBALL

What Was Your Most Memorable Experience?

I remember the time where we played against Bristol Eastern. I went up and spiked a returning ball and without knowing it I had accidentally spiked the ball on a Bristol Eastern girl's head. I repetitively apologized to the girl throughout the match, but I will never forget the horrible look on the girl's face after she was hit.

My most memorable experience in volleyball happened against the #1 ranked team in the state, Bristol Eastern. I was up against a hitter many said was "the best hitter in the state." I held my own against her, and often either roofed a block against her or somehow deflected her powerful spike.

I remember all the times the softball team lined up to run in softball practice, Mr. Parciak would always say "watcha gotta dooo, is run all right??" So, with those orders, each and every one of us would take a few laps around the field.

KAREN SPRING
SENIOR, SOFTBALL

I will never forget the Northwest Conference game at home my sophomore year. The game was tied up and even though I can't dribble too well, I managed to get the ball and sink a perfect layup.

DAWN SYMONAITIS
CAPTAIN BASKETBALL

1991 Boys Track and Field

The 1991 Boys' Track and Field Team did well in face of stiff competition. When previous Coach David Scannell announced that he would be absent for the 1990-1991 school year, Rick Handbury offered to coach the team for the 1991 Track and Field season.

The team had an overall record of ten wins and three losses, and a record of four wins and three losses in the Northwest Conference. Members of the 1991 team qualified for every event of the Class M State Championships, except the 800m run. Berlin placed eighth in the Championships.

Forest Conoly, Chris Barnet, and Jake Kritzer all qualified in their best events for the Connecticut State Open. Berlin finished 20th in the State Open competition. A large group of seniors graduated in 1991, but the outlook for the 1992 season looks hopeful.

1991 Girls' Track and Field

The 1991 Girls' Track Team by no means had an off-year on the track. Consisting of mainly juniors and sophomores, the team completed their season with a 9-1 over-all record and a 6-1 league record.

The girls finished the sea-

1991 Boys' Baseball

The 1991 Boys' Baseball Team was the runner-up in the Class M State Championships. The team was also the runner-up in the Whaler Invitational Tournament and Northwest Conference champions.

In the Northwest Conference, the ball club held the incredible record of 14 wins and no losses. Overall, the team played to earn a record of 22 wins and two losses during the season and the State Tournament.

Dave Swanson, Tony Santoro, Tom Cocomo, Jason Albert, Kyle Cooney, and Jake Biscoglio were all named to the Northwest Conference All-Star Team. Jake Biscoglio was named to the Academic All-State Team. Dave Swanson and Tony Santoro were both named to the Connecticut All-State Baseball Team. Dave Swanson was named the State and Regional Gatorade Player of the year for the 1991 season.

Many outstanding players were overshadowed by the players mentioned above. Dave Stephanowicz was a very helpful supporting pitcher. Senior Jason Albert was one of the better fielders in the conference. Senior Kevin Crowell added speed on the base paths and power behind the plate. These players along with seniors Fred Alkas, John Koslowski, and Brian Zup hope to take the 1992 team to the Class M State Final once again.

Serving Up Victory

1991 Boys' Tennis

The Tennis team fared well in its 1991 season. The season was hard fought against the team's rival, Farmington. The team only lost twice, both times to Farmington, in matches where the team faced opponents inside of the Northwest Conference. Both matches were extremely close; the score in each was 3-4. Berlin was a close second in the competition for the Northwest Conference title. The team finished in fourth place in the state tournament.

The Northwest Conference Tournament was hard-fought. Tai Nguyen fought all the way to the singles final. Todd DeGroff did almost as well. Doubles team John Padden and Kevin Burt reached the doubles final before they were defeated. Tai Nguyen and Todd DeGroff also did well as a doubles team in the State Tournament.

The coming season will see the team almost as it was in 1991. Returning senior captains Todd DeGroff and John Padden and senior Jeff Schmidt will lead the team to challenge Farmington for the Northwest Conference Title in the 1992 season.

Todd DeGroff returns a high forehand.

Jeff Schmidt confidently places a low forehand.

1991 Girls' Tennis

The 1991 Girls' Tennis team finished off their season with an undefeated record of 19-0. The girls placed first in the North West Conference and won the mix doubles tournament. With only one senior, Bridget Hayward, on the team, the girls' tennis team is young but has high expectations for the 1992 season. Shelly Ravizza, Lynne Orlowky, Gretchen Zielinski, Kelly Spooner, Sara McLaughlin and Maureen McDermott are all returning, the 1992 Girls' Tennis team will surely "racquet" to the top.

A Winning Effort

1991 Girls' Softball team

Winning takes effort, enthusiasm, and team work. The Girls' Softball team knows that, after all, they finished their league season with a 14-0 record, making them the Northwest Conference Champions. But the team's goals went much farther than winning the N.W. conference. The girls took their team all the way to the State Championship, an accomplishment other teams dream of. Although they lost in the final round, seven of the nine starters on the 1991 team will be back with the same strengths and determination to win. Dawn Symonaitis, Joy Cooper, Leah Veleas, Beth Riebeling, Karen Spring, Sue Church, Marcia Baranowski and Coach Parciak will lead the 1992 team.

The girls embrace each other and congratulate their team members on their hard work against Lewis Mills.

We Asked the Athletes . . . What Do You Remember Best?

"We won the Wrestling Class M State Championship in 1991 by 0.5 points. We also won the Class M State Championship in 1989. In the last three years we won three Northwest Conference Championships."

Chris Muli '92

"This year's team is an improvement over last year's basketball team. The event I will remember best from this year's season is our away game against Lyman Hall. In the last few seconds of the game Dave Stefanowicz shot from mid-court to win the match for Berlin."

Dave Bosso '93

"I remember going to the Pizza Barn to celebrate the end of the 1991 season. At one point our team had a record of eight wins and three losses. We finally bought real cross country team jackets. Cider and donuts at the Northwest Conference Meet were nice. I'd also like to thank all of our fans."

Chris Barnat '92

"Our relay team won fifth place in two Northwest Conference meets and when we could have broken the school record in our State Meet, we were disqualified for false-starting. The bus rides were too long and the races were too short for all that preparation. Because we lack a track, all of our meets were away. Because of this we resorted to running on our lovely asphalt parking lot for practice."

Paul Muirhead '92

"My most vivid memories are of our most successful 1990 tennis season. We fought hard and were runner-up in the State Tournament. Even better than this, we beat our main rival Farmington to win our second Northwest Conference title."

John Padden '92

"My memorable game was the 1990 away soccer game against Aquinas. The game was played before 800 fans in Willow Brook Park. After the first half the score was three to nothing in favor of Berlin. However, Aquinas scored two goals in the beginning of the second half. The rest of this intense half was scoreless. We won by a narrow margin of one goal."

Jeff Schmidt '92

"I have many fond memories of my past golf seasons. Mr. Bate's careful instruction during daily practice will stay in my memory. And I will never forget night golf."

Don Demaine '92

"Our regular season passed without a defeat during the 1991 football season. We knew what our final goal was from the beginning. We beat our rival Middletown to win the Northwest Conference title. We fought our way to the Class M State Championship and a tough game against Darien. It was a great season that will be remembered."

Paul Simeone '92

"We made it all the way to the Class M State final in the 1991 baseball season. Along the way we beat long-time rival East Hartford. Led by Coach Crazy Leo Veleas on the sidelines and Crowell's outfield chatter on the field, we became the second place team in the state. Albert's smooth fielding at third base and Zup's monster swing also helped us along."

Not Just Names . . . Not Just Names . . . Not Just

How some BHS Teacher's got their names:

June Valentino — I was named after my "Birthday" which is in June.

Rose Meyers: No, I am not named after the flowers. My name is derived from my grandmother's name Rosalie.

Raymond Lowell: I was named after the doctor who brought me into the world.

Alice Mitchell: I was named after my grandmother — Anne O'Leary and My grandmother — Alice Maloney — "Alice Anne". There has been the name of Alice or a version of Alice (Marialice/Alison) in the family for 5 generations.

Judith O'Brien: I don't know why my parents chose my name but it certainly was a popular one in my generation. There were seven Judith's in my high school class of one hundred!

Avi Ornstein: In Hebrew, "avi" means father. My Hebrew name is "Abraham Isaac", which was my mother's father's name. In addition, Avi was the nickname of my father's friend. My parents wanted a short original, individual name for me.

Aracelys Grady: I was named after a popular soap opera character in Puerto Rico. My name is Latin and means "gates of Heaven."

Richard A. Hanbury: My middle name is my father's first name, but my first name has no real significance. My last name has been in the family for years!

Stanley Brittingham: Stanley is Anglo-Saxon meaning "from the Stoney Meadow."

Paul Karam: I was named after the church of Peter and Paul in my father's hometown.

Dolores Knopf: My older brother wanted a sister and he named me after the song "How I love the kisses of Dolores."

Marsha Wilenski: My father heard it on the radio one night when he was driving home from work and he liked it.

Susan Daniels: I was named Susan first of all because I turned out not to be a boy and secondly because when my uncle was courting my aunt he called my mother Susie.

Other sources: grandfather, grandmother, father, godfather, mother, god-mother, aunt.

Longtime Teachers Retire

Mr. Raymond Lowell

Mr. Lowell Recalls 35 Years

Mr. Raymond Lowell has been a part of the Berlin Public Schools System for 35 years. He began his career as a guidance counselor at Berlin High School and at McGee Middle School before becoming a member of Berlin High's Business Department.

Over the years, Mr. Lowell has been witness to several changes within Berlin High, such as the new addition to the building in the early 1970's. The staff has nearly doubled in size, and while Mr. Lowell misses the closeness of a small staff, he feels that the school has greatly benefited from the increase. He has also seen the evolution of the Business Department from small classes with manual typewriters to large computer courses.

In the future, Mr. Lowell hopes to travel and spend more time with his family. He has greatly enjoyed his work, and his presence in the Business Department will be missed tremendously. The students and faculty thank Mr. Lowell for his years of dedication and hard work, and wish him the best in his retirement.

Mrs. McMahon Looks to Future Opportunities

After 32 years of dedicated service, Mrs. Mia McMahon will retire from Berlin High School this spring. Mrs. McMahon first began her career in the Special Education Department and later became a librarian in Berlin High's library, which was then located where the Guidance Department is today. One of the biggest changes that she has encountered was watching the library grow from a library of 6,000 volumes to the present Media Center of 24,000 books. Mrs. McMahon finds the computer age exciting, but she worries that today's students do not read enough.

During her newly acquired free time, Mrs. McMahon plans to travel to parts of the world she has not yet seen, such as the Far East and the Pacific Islands. She hopes to work with the Literacy Volunteers of America, and also would like to serve as a counselor for a middle school child and assist him or her throughout high school. Mrs. McMahon says that she hopes to "do something for someone else and then enjoy life myself."

Although she will miss her friends and colleagues, Mrs. McMahon says that she will not miss the early morning hours! Her enthusiasm and dedication will long be remembered, and Berlin High School wishes Mrs. McMahon the best of luck in the future.

Mrs. Mia McMahon

Preparing For The Future

The 1991-1992 school year saw the initiation of the Technology Education program, formerly known as the Industrial Arts Department as it shifted to a contemporary curriculum. The new program emphasizes problem solving skills and gives the students a broader picture of technology today.

The department felt that Berlin High was falling behind because of the many breakthroughs that had been made in the field of technology over the last ten years. These advances, combined with the growing need for environmental awareness, led to the formation of the Technology Education Department. Through the use of field trips and guest speakers, the Department is also constantly informing its students of current post-secondary opportunities.

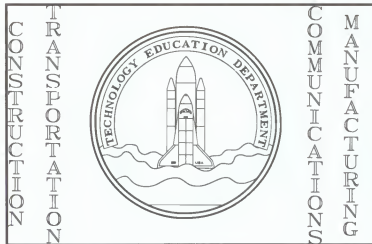

"Tech. Ed." concentrates on four major areas: transportation, construction, manufacturing, and communications. The transportation courses deal with air, space, land, and sea transportation systems, while the construction area features classes that demonstrate how things such as airports, bridges, roads, and houses are built. Students who have courses about manufacturing learn how goods and products are produced, and the communications portion deals with courses that handle graphic and electronic communications systems. Each class gives students "hands on" experience.

The Technology Education Department is planning courses for the future as well. They hope to offer classes in the areas of electronic communication, engineering technology, and multimedia production technology. Currently, there is a course that offers cross credit with the Physics department, and more classes in cooperation with the Science department are planned. The new Technology Department is preparing its students for the everchanging future of technology.

Kevin Crowell, Mike Francalangia, Adrian Eiben, and Tony Trojanowski work together on a project for the Home Mechanics class.

Technology Education

Mr. Wolfe and the Introduction to Air and Space Transportation class experiment with a hot air balloon in the gym.

Chris Carfi and Jason Lukasiewski carefully sand a wood project.

Melissa Gornecult and Rich Charamut concentrate on their drafting projects while Mr. Recor gives Kelly Bidwell a hand with her idea.

CONGRATULATIONS JOHN!

From the moment you could sit up, your body bounced to music! With an ear to ear grin, at 7 you blasted out your first note on the trumpet and at 11 you shocked us with your voice when you sang and performed in your first school play. As a teenager, you set your sights on the stage, along with a group of very special friends who shared your love and ambition for music, and practiced tirelessly to create your own band.

Your young life is filled with treasured memories. Thank you for filling our home with music and laughter. As an adult we wish you continued success in the Performing Arts. Remember that we are always behind you in everything you do, proud, happy, and full of love for you! God gave you a gift, always praise Him with it!

John E. Simeone

Fifty-six years ago, your grandfather, Joseph, began a long family history of involvement with Berlin High School when he served the First Graduating Class as President. Your grandmother, Helen, followed a year later as Editor-in-Chief of the Berlin High School Beacon for her senior class. Through the years many aunts, uncles, and cousins have passed through the halls of Berlin High School. Your graduation marks the beginning of the third generation of "Simeones" who proudly call Berlin High School their alma mater. May you always look back on these past four years with the fondest of memories. May your dreams for the future lead you on your way.

Love always,
Your Family

Our Roots Grow Deep.

They extend back through the decades to 1873 . . . through wars and peace . . . through every type of economic and national condition. And these roots are strong. Founded in 1873, Berlin Savings Bank has grown to become MidConn Bank today, offering expanded services and financial products to meet the needs of the individuals and businesses in the central Connecticut area.

Now, as then, we continue the tradition of providing the same expertise, the same individualized service and the same personal attention to our customers . . . MidConn Bank stands tall when stability, strength and security are put to measure.

Hard work and dedication are reflected in the pages of the 1992 Lamp. Starting from blank pieces of paper, crop-pers, and pictures, the staff worked on layouts, adver-tisements, picture cropping, and many other "little" things that needed to be done to publish this yearbook.

Now that the last textbook has been returned and the last graduation cap has been thrown, we know that it is time to say goodbye. When we look back at the years spent at Berlin High School, we will remember the experiences that have shaped us into the individuals that we are today. Some will recall the championship games, spring concerts, or intense exams, but we all will remember the good times we have spent with our friends. The most important legacy of Berlin High is undoubtedly the strong friendships that we have forged and the names that we have known.

Although our four years of joy and pain have come to a close, we are on the brink of the future. Each member of the Class of 1992 must choose his or her own path through life, whether it leads to college or the work place. As we travel this road, we will learn new names, but we will not forget the names we knew before. Berlin High School will always be the place where everyone knows your name.

Interventions for Intimate Partner Violence: A Meta-Analysis of the Literature

David A. Hanson, PhD, and David M. Mustard, PhD

Abstract This meta-analysis examined the effectiveness of interventions for intimate partner violence (IPV) across 19 studies. The meta-analysis found that interventions for IPV were effective in reducing recidivism rates.

Keywords: intimate partner violence, meta-analysis, interventions, recidivism

Intimate partner violence (IPV) is a significant public health problem. It is a leading cause of injury and death for women and children (Finkelhor, Browne, & Browne, 1985).

IPV is a complex phenomenon that involves multiple factors, including individual, social, and cultural factors (Finkelhor et al., 1985).

Interventions for IPV are designed to reduce the risk of future violence and improve the well-being of victims and perpetrators (Finkelhor et al., 1985).

This meta-analysis examined the effectiveness of interventions for IPV across 19 studies. The meta-analysis found that interventions for IPV were effective in reducing recidivism rates.

The meta-analysis included 19 studies that met the following criteria: (a) the study was a randomized controlled trial, (b) the study was published in English, and (c) the study reported on the effectiveness of an intervention for IPV.

The meta-analysis found that interventions for IPV were effective in reducing recidivism rates. The effect size was moderate to large, indicating that interventions for IPV are effective in reducing the risk of future violence.

The meta-analysis also found that interventions for IPV were effective in improving the well-being of victims and perpetrators. The effect size was moderate to large, indicating that interventions for IPV are effective in improving the well-being of victims and perpetrators.

The meta-analysis has several limitations. First, the meta-analysis only included 19 studies, which may not be representative of the entire literature. Second, the meta-analysis only examined the effectiveness of interventions for IPV, and did not examine the effectiveness of other interventions for IPV.

Despite these limitations, the meta-analysis provides strong evidence that interventions for IPV are effective in reducing recidivism rates and improving the well-being of victims and perpetrators.

Interventions for IPV are a critical component of the response to IPV. The meta-analysis provides strong evidence that interventions for IPV are effective in reducing recidivism rates and improving the well-being of victims and perpetrators.

The meta-analysis has several implications for practice. First, the meta-analysis suggests that interventions for IPV should be implemented as a standard part of the response to IPV. Second, the meta-analysis suggests that interventions for IPV should be tailored to the needs of individual victims and perpetrators.

The meta-analysis also has several implications for research. First, the meta-analysis suggests that more research is needed to examine the effectiveness of interventions for IPV. Second, the meta-analysis suggests that more research is needed to examine the effectiveness of other interventions for IPV.

In conclusion, the meta-analysis provides strong evidence that interventions for IPV are effective in reducing recidivism rates and improving the well-being of victims and perpetrators. The meta-analysis has several implications for practice and research.
